Group Relations Conference — Ghana 2027

The Past Alive in the Present: Authority, Leadership and the Future We Create

Dear Colleagues,

Join us in shaping the future by becoming an official sponsor. Your organisation's support directly fuels our upcoming international conference, fostering breakthrough dialogues on leadership, authority, and institutional legacies.

Choose a sponsorship tier that aligns with your organisation's philanthropic and strategic vision.

About the Conference

22–28 February 2027 | Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Training Centre (KAIPTC), Accra, Ghana

Hosted by OPUS (UK), the A.K. Rice Institute (USA), Palena Gardens – Centre for Leadership, Wellbeing and Culture (Ghana), and the Institute of African Studies, University of Ghana, this conference draws on the Tavistock tradition of Group Relations. It brings together leaders, scholars, organisational consultants, practitioners and policymakers from across Africa and the global diaspora to examine how historical trauma, collective memory, authority and organisational life continue to shape leadership across institutions, governments, communities and businesses.

Why Sponsor

Global Reach

Align your brand with high-level international delegates, institutional directors, and board-level executives.

Thought Leadership

Demonstrate your commitment to progressive institutional development and lasting social impact.

Cultural & Academic Impact

Support critical dialogue at the intersection of history, leadership, and future institutional frameworks.

Financial Stewardship

Sponsorship funds are held in a dedicated foreign-currency account and administered within the approved conference budget, with oversight from the Conference Budget and Finance Committee.

Your Support Will Help Us

- Convene an international community of scholars, leaders, practitioners and policymakers.
- Support emerging West African leaders and students through bursaries and sponsorship opportunities.
- Create opportunities for meaningful dialogue across Africa, the Caribbean, Europe, the Americas and the wider global diaspora.
- Deliver an innovative learning experience integrating academic scholarship, experiential Group Relations practice and engagement with sites of profound historical significance.
